

Public forums on library building project March 5

2/25/15

LYNNFIELD —Library Building Consultant Mary Braney and Library Director Nancy Ryan will be holding two open and public forums on Thursday, March 5 at the Lynnfield Public Library to update interested residents and library patrons on the library building program and provide an opportunity for residents to voice their questions and ideas about this project.

In an effort to make these meetings as convenient as possible, the library will hold the first one at 10 a.m. and the second at 7:30 p.m. The meetings will be held on the mezzanine at the library. Please come with questions. Those who would like further information may contact Nancy Ryan at 781-334-

5411 or ryan@noblenet.org
